THE NATURAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION AUTHORITY ACT

THE NATURAL RESOURCES CONSERVATION (PALISADOES—PORT ROYAL PROTECTED AREA) ORDER, 1998

In exercise of the power conferred upon the Minister by section 5(1)(b) of the Natural Resources Conservation Authority Act, and on the recommendation of the Natural Resources Conservation Authority after consultation with the Jamaica National Heritage Trust, the following Order is hereby made:

1. This Order may be cited as the Natural Resources Conservation (Palisadoes—Port Royal Protected Area) Order, 1998

2. The area set out in Part I of the Schedule hereto, which is delineated on the map set out in Part II thereof, is hereby designated a protected area and shall be known as the Palisadoes—Port Royal Protected Area.

SCHEDULE

PART I—Palisadoes—Port Royal Protected Area

(Paragraph 2)

Starting at the parish boundary monument between the parishes of Kingston and St. Andrew then easterly in a straight line of the eastern bank of the Hope River, then from this point in a south-south-easterly direction to the 200 metre depth contour in sea, then along the 200 metre depth contour in a south-westerly, south-south-westerly then southerly direction to a point with geographical co-ordinates 17°52'42"N and 78°45'54"W five thousand, seven hundred and twenty metres south-east of Plumb Point Light House, then westerly in a straight line for a distance of approximately eight thousand, eight hundred and forty metres to the navigational aid buoy on Fathom Bank near the south channel, having geographical co-ordinates 17°52'42"N and 76°51'36"W, then north-easterly in a straight line for an approximate distance of five thousand, five hundred and sixty metres to the navigational buoy known as the West Middle Rock Buoy, having geographical co-ordinates 17°55'39"N and 76°51'02"W, then north-easterly in a straight line for approximately eight hundred and forty metres to the fixed beacon called Harbour Shoal Beacon with geographical co-ordinates 17°56'07"N and 76°50'55"W one thousand three hundred metres to the fixed beacon known as Pelican Spit Beacon with geographical co-ordinates 17°56'42"N and 76°50'40"W, then north-easterly for an approximate distance of one thousand and sixty metres to the fixed beacon called Bloomfield Beacon with geographical co-ordinates 17°56'57"N and 76°50'08"W, then north-easterly for an approximate distance of four thousand, one hundred and thirty metres to the fixed beacon called Tupper Beacon with geographical co-ordinates 17°57'03"N and 76°47'46"W, then south-easterly in a straight line for an approximate distance of two thousand, four hundred and thirty metres to the western most of the twin beacons with geographical co-ordinates 17°56'46"N and 76°46'26"W at the marine docking entrance of the Royal PART I—Palisadoes—Port Royal Protected Area, contd.

Jamaica Yacht Club, then on a straight line of grid bearing north-east 26°00' for a distance of two hundred and thirty metres, then north-easterly on a straight line for a distance of one hundred and twenty metres to a point which is perpendicular to the high water mark of the northern shore of the Palisadoes peninsula; then in a line proceeding generally south-easterly, easterly, south-easterly and north-easterly at a constant distance of one hundred and fifty metres back to the starting point.
Dated this 18th day of September, 1998.

EANTON DOUGLAW,
Minister of Environment and Housing.